Reading. Read the text and answer the questions.

Mr. Wonka is alone inside the open gates of the factory. And what an interesting little man he is! He has a black top hat on his head. He wears a tail coat made of beautiful dark blue velvet. His trousers are green. His gloves are grey. And in one hand he carries a fine walking stick. Covering his chin, there is a small black beard. And his eyes are bright. They seem to sparkle and look at you all the time. The whole face, in fact, is alight with fun and laughter.

And oh, how clever he looks! How quick and full of life! He makes quick little movements with his head. He is like a squirrel in the quickness of his movements, like a quick clever old squirrel from the park. Suddenly, he does a funny little dance in the snow, and he spreads his arms wide, and he smiles at the five children who are near the gates, and he calls out,

'Welcome, my little friends! Welcome to the factory!'
