A LIVE ALARM CLOCK

My parents couldn't wake me up in the morning. Every morning Mum came into my room and said, 'It's time to get up, Nicky!' and she repeated it again and again. But I didn't hear. Then Dad repeated it several times, but it didn't work.

My parents didn't know what to do, so they bought me a special alarm clock. When it was seven in the morning, this alarm clock rang very loudly. If I didn't get up and turn it off, it started singing. But a week later that song stopped waking me up.

My parents thought and thought, and a month later they bought me a small puppy. At first I didn't understand why, and was very happy. But soon I understood. Every morning, when my alarm clock started ringing, my puppy ran into the room. He didn't bark. He took the edge of my blanket with his teeth, pulled it off me and ran away to the kitchen with it. I started freezing. Can you sleep when you are freezing? I can't! So I jumped out of the bed and ran after my blanket. I always found it in the kitchen. But there were hot pancakes, cornflakes with milk and iced tea on the table. That was the end of the problem.
